FROM FR. MARK:

Today, Sunday 13 November 2022 is the sixth World Day of the Poor, with the theme of "For your sakes Christ became poor" (2 Cor 8:9). Pope Francis, in his message for the day, laments that just as the world was emerging from the "tempest of the pandemic", a new catastrophe appeared on the horizon: the Russian invasion of Ukraine and the brutal war which has followed. The war has displaced millions of Ukrainian people and caused global economic turbulence, with food shortages and rising energy costs which will affect the poorest this winter. The Pope reminds us of the generosity of people in welcoming refugees from recent conflicts in the Middle East. He understands that host communities can feel burdened, and it is difficult to maintain relief efforts, but he says, "This is the moment for us not to lose heart but to renew our initial motivation. The work we have begun needs to be brought to completion with the same sense of responsibility."

In his message for the sixth World Day of the Poor, Pope Francis reminds us that from the very early days of the Church, attention to the needs of the poor was a feature of the community. St Paul, in his letter to the Christians in Corinth, is asking for help for the community in Jerusalem, who are suffering great hardship due to a food shortage in the country. He does not regard this request as a command but instead asks them to take up a collection as "a sign of love, the love shown by Jesus himself". As Pope Francis reminds us, "where the poor are concerned, it is not talk that matters; what matter is rolling up our sleeves and putting faith into practice through a direct involvement, one that cannot be delegated". It is important that no one lacks what is necessary and our concern is born out of sincere and generous concern which sees those who are poor as our brothers and sisters. It is not so much that we are helping them, but that they "lend a hand to help me shake off the lethargy into which I have fallen". Before being the objects of our almsgiving, those who are poor "can help set us free from the snares of anxiety and superficiality". That is why the Pope insists that our work is never for the poor, but with the poor and of the poor, work that brings people together (Fratelli Tutti, 169).

More than that, we are called to become poor ourselves. Not materially poor, that is "a poverty that humiliates and kills" as the Pope says. The poverty we are called to is the poverty of Jesus, this is the poverty that sets us free, sets us free from attachment to the idol of wealth and all the anxiety it brings. The poverty of Jesus was his self-emptying love, which excludes no one "and seeks out everyone, especially the marginalized and those deprived of the necessities of life. Our freedom is the sharing of our lives out of love, restoring dignity to those trapped in injustice. This is what the Holy Father calls the way to create equality, "to free the poor from their misery and the rich from their vanity, and both from their despair".

I encourage you to take time to deepen your own encounter with those who are poor, of examining your own conscience about your lifestyles and how our faith is expressed in loving action.

We are living in a time where morally right is so vehemently discarded and absolute wrong is praised! One only needs to watch the latest television programming, commercials, even the news, etc.... to see the obvious tumultuousness of our days! I ask you, "Where is the seeking of God in these times?" "Where is your prayer, and sacrifice? Do not close your eyes and ears to the noise of the world- as if it will just go away. Lo, the day is coming, blazing like an oven, when all the proud and all evildoers will be stubble, and the day that is coming will set them on fire, leaving them neither root nor branch...Do not be caught off guard, one must anchor themselves within the -Sacraments- Rosary- Consecration to our Lady.... etc. Our Lord told us, it is by your perseverance that you will secure your life! Live a life that shines God- Live a life of Love! Journey onward ye sojourners to the Kingdom. Keep to the J.O.Y.S.
