Raymond of Capua, St. Jane Frances de Chantal and St. Francis de Sales, and others, this book invites readers to reclaim the art of seeing, honoring, and loving others as Christ does.

In a culture marked by loneliness, Friendship in the Lord is a powerful invitation to rediscover the beauty of spiritual friendship—and to become the kind of friend your soul, and the Church, needs. This 8 week study begins Sept 22/23 and the cost of the book is $12.00. Contact Caroline Trimble Pastoral Associate, if you would be interested in joining.

RESPECT LIFE CORNER: Human Trafficking Awareness “Migrant communities encompass a variety of demographics and are all vulnerable to exploitation given their marginalized situation. Traffickers thrive where vulnerability is high, especially in the circumstances and challenges that occur in the lives of migrant individuals. Individuals migrating from their country of origin to the United States through irregular means are often trapped in situations of labor and sexual trafficking. Such migrants are often less likely to turn to local law enforcement, government, and other organizations because of a distrust for these types of entities. The lack of status enhances their vulnerability to traffickers who prey on these individuals due to their precarious situations.”

USCCB

VOCATION CORNER:

“I graduated from the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md., and served for five years as a surface warfare officer on a Navy destroyer. We had the extraordinary grace of having the Blessed Sacrament onboard during hundreds of days at sea, and I experienced, in the Eucharist, God’s extravagant love and unfailing presence... Jesus was stirring in my heart a desire to do something great and meaningful. He was waiting for me...and he was the answer to my infinite desires that the world could never satisfy. He showed me that he wanted to write a beautiful story with my life. In the silence of prayer, I heard the invitation to become a bride of Christ. I met the Sisters of Life and knew I was being called to lay down my life so that others might have eternal life. I received the name Sister Maris Stella in honor of Our Lady, Star of the Sea, who guides us to safe harbor in the heart of her son, Jesus.” sr. Maris Stella Karalekas; Sisters of Life Columbia Magazine Jan-Feb. 2023

RESPECT LIFE CORNER:

Human Trafficking Awareness “Migrant communities encompass a variety of demographics and are all vulnerable to exploitation given their marginalized situation. Traffickers thrive where vulnerability is high, especially in the circumstances and challenges that occur in the lives of migrant individuals. Individuals migrating from their country of origin to the United States through irregular means are often trapped in situations of labor and sexual trafficking. Such migrants are often less likely to turn to local law enforcement, government, and other organizations because of a distrust for these types of entities. The lack of status enhances their vulnerability to traffickers who prey on these individuals due to their precarious situations.” USCCB

VOCATION CORNER:

“I graduated from the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md., and served for five years as a surface warfare officer on a Navy destroyer. We had the extraordinary grace of having the Blessed Sacrament onboard during hundreds of days at sea, and I experienced, in the Eucharist, God's extravagant love and unfailing presence..Jesus was stirring in my heart a desire to do something great and meaningful. He was waiting for me and he was the answer to my infinite desires that the world could never satisfy. He showed me that he wanted to write a beautiful story with my life. In the silence of prayer, I heard the invitation to become a bride of Christ. I met the Sisters of Life and knew I was being called to lay down my life so that others might have eternal life. I received the name Sister Maris Stella in honor of Our Lady, Star of the Sea, who guides us to safe harbor in the heart of her son, Jesus.” Sr. Maris Stella Karalekas; Sisters of Life Columbia Magazine Jan-Feb. 2023

If you want to be forgiven...

In today's Gospel reading Jesus tells the story of a king whose servant owed him a lot of money. The king was going to punish the servant, but when the man knelt down and begged for mercy, the king forgave him. Then that same man went and punished a servant who owed him money. When the king found out about this he was very angry.

SORRY I RIPPED
YOUR BOOK
A BIT.

In this story Jesus is telling us that if we want God to forgive us our sins then we have to forgive the people who have hurt us.

Has anyone ever done something mean to you? How do you feel when that happens? Do you feel loving toward that person? Jesus tells us that we must forgive those people, even when they really hurt us, because we want God to forgive us too. Every time we sin we offend God, and He will still forgive us if we are sorry. If we want God to forgive us, then it's only fair for us to forgive others.

I'M SORRY FOR TALKING RUDELY
TO YOU.

WHEN YOU REALLY LOVE SOMEONE YOU WILL FEEL SAD WHEN THEY ARE HURT. OUR LADY LOVED JESUS MORE THAN ANYONE ELSE EVER COULD, AND SHE ALSO SUFFERED MORE THAN ANYONE ELSE. BUT SHE WAS HAPPY TO SUFFER FOR JESUS. WE SHOULD PRAY TO OUR LADY TO HELP US TO LOVE OUR LORD, EVEN IF WE HAVE TO SUFFER.
