Vocation Corner: Sunday, April 6th

“Growing up in a Catholic homeschooling family, I knew my faith well. Though our cattle ranch was 45 minutes from the closest church, Sunday Mass was always a priority. My parents’ example of praying with Scripture each morning inspired me to do the same during high school. As my relationship with God grew, I began to hear his call to the priesthood. The priests I knew influenced me greatly, and reading about the life of Blessed Michael McGivney strengthened my desire to serve as a priest. After my ordination as a transitional deacon, I had to take a couple of years for health reasons. During that time, I reread biographies of and letters from Blessed Solanus Casey – who is my great-great-uncle – and was inspired by how he always thanked God despite his own suffering and difficulty during seminary. Today, more than a year since my priestly ordination, I cannot thank God enough for the great blessings he gives me as I serve his people, especially by celebrating the Mass and hearing confessions.” Fr. Caleb Cunningham; Diocese of Baker, OR; Columba Magazine November 2024

Respect Life Corner: Sunday, April 6th

“Virgin of Guadalupe, Patroness of unborn children, we implore your intercession for every child at risk of abortion. ... Guide our public officials to defend each and every human life through just laws. Inspire us all to bring our faith into public life, to speak for those who have no voice. We ask this in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ, who is Love and Mercy itself. Amen.”

THANK YOU:
A very special thank you to Mark & Jeannie Nix, Kathy Kuenstler, and Margaret Geier for veiling our sacred images, crucifixes, and statues in church. Also thank you to Helen Donsbach for helping decorate the church for Lent. We are so thankful for them volunteering their time and talents to keep our church beautifully decorated. These last two weeks of Lent are meant to be a time of immediate preparation for the Sacred Triduum and these veils are a forceful reminder to get ready. By veiling the statues, we symbolically enter the tomb’s darkness, acknowledging the absence of Christ’s physical presence and his ultimate sacrifice on the cross. This act is not meant to leave us in despair and sorrow but to call us to deeper reflection and spiritual renewal – to strip away distractions and focus on the profound mystery of God’s love revealed in Christ’s sacrifice.
