CAROLINE TRIMBLE, PASTORAL ASSOCIATE:

“Remaining little means--to recognize one’s nothingness, to await everything from the Goodness of God, to avoid being too much troubled at our faults; finally, not to worry over amassing spiritual riches, not be solicitous about anything.” St. Therese of Lisieux
Let us be little in all that we do, say, share, and live. Let us be little so that only graciousness, kindness, smiles, and compassion show forth. Let us be little in that we LIVE trusting that God leads the way. Let us be little holding the hand of our Father, Mother, and Savior. Let us be little in that All are better when in our midst. Let us be little in self and big in God -and Love. Our Lady of Sorrows, pray for us!

SISTER’S IN CHRIST: New Book Study for the Fall!

Friendship in the Lord is a timeless Catholic spiritual classic that reveals how authentic friendship, when rooted in Christ, becomes a path to holiness, healing, and joy. Reflecting on saintly friendships such as St. Catherine of Siena and Bl. Raymond of Capua, St. Jane Frances de Chantal and St. Francis de Sales, and others, this book invites readers to reclaim the art of seeing, honoring, and loving others as Christ does. In a culture marked by loneliness, Friendship in the Lord is a powerful invitation to rediscover the beauty of spiritual friendship—and to become the kind of friend your soul, and the Church, needs. This 8-week study begins Sept 22/23 and the cost of the book is $12.00. Contact Caroline Trimble, if you would be interested in joining. Sister’s in Christ Schedule: †Tuesday mornings - 10am at St. Joseph-Stringtown, 5pm St. Joseph-Olney †Wednesday evenings - 5:30pm at Holy Cross-Wendelin.

O.C.I.A. – ORDER OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS: Have You Been Curiously Seeking More?

Are you or someone you know exploring the Catholic faith? Jesus invited His first disciples to "come and see" who He was. The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) is a welcoming, no-pressure journey of faith, discussion, and discovery. Who is OCIA for?

- Unbaptized adults wanting to learn about and join the Catholic Church.
- Baptized Christians from other denominations looking to enter full communion with the Catholic Church.
- Baptized Catholics who have not yet received the Sacraments of Confirmation or First Holy Communion.

There is no obligation or immediate commitment required—just an open door to ask questions, explore beliefs, and learn in a warm, supportive environment. Contact Caroline Trimble Pastoral Associate, Fr. Steven or Fr. Levi if you are interested in joining.

RESPECT LIFE CORNER:

US Immigration Reform - The current immigration system is inadequate to address the needs of American families, employers, communities, and immigrants themselves. Reforms and investments are needed to modernize/increase capacity at ports of entry, increase the number of/access to lawful immigration pathways, and establish earned legalization programs for long-time undocumented residents. Suggested reforms are grounded in Catholic teaching, and recognize our country's right to regulate borders, balanced with our duty to uphold the sanctity of human life. For more resources: www.justiceforimmigrants.org.

PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR SEMINARIANS:

The Diocese of Belleville is blessed with 11 seminarians who are discerning God's call to the priesthood. This week, please pray for Greg Kassen as he continues his formation at Mundelein Seminary.

Your prayers are a vital part of supporting vocations. Whether it's a Rosary, a Mass intention, or a simple prayer, please keep Greg in your prayers this week as he continues his formation and prepares to serve the people of God. Want to send a note of encouragement? Greg Kassen, Mundelein Seminary, 1000 E. Maple Ave., Mundelein, IL 60060. Thank you for supporting vocations in the Diocese of Belleville. St. John Vianney, pray for us. *Please note we were not able to publish the last couple week's seminarians in the bulletin due to limited room so please keep Casmir Cozzi (September 5-6) and Terry Marmion (September 12-13) in your prayers, as well. You can send them cards and notes to the same address at Mundelein Seminary.

VOCATION CORNER:

"I once believed that becoming a priest was a fate worse than death! I always wanted to get married, have a family, and own a golden retriever. My plan was to become a doctor, and I was studying for a degree in science when I had an honest conversation with my childhood pastor. Without coercing me, he affirmed that I would be a great doctor, husband, father – or priest. "The most important thing," he said, "is to seek God's will, because that is where you will find true peace and happiness". Days later, I prayed as I had many times before: "God, I'll do anything you want me to do." But this time I added, "And if you want me to be a priest, I'd love to!" Immediately, I felt afraid, hoping no one had overheard me. Simultaneously, I felt a profound peace from the Holy Spirit. That fall, I decided to join the Companions of the Cross and found that God's plan fit like a glove." Fr. Simon Lobo; Companions of the Cross; Halifax, Nova Scotia, Columbia Magazine June 2022

CAROLINE TRIMBLE, PASTORAL ASSOCIATE:
“Remaining little means--to recognize one’s nothingness, to await everything from the Goodness of God, to avoid being too much troubled at our faults; finally, not to worry over amassing spiritual riches, not be solicitous about anything.” St. Therese of Lisieux; Let us be little in all that we do, say, share, and live. Let us be little so that only graciousness, kindness, smiles, and compassion show forth. Let us be little in that we LIVE trusting that God leads the way. Let us be little holding the hand of our Father, Mother, and Savior. Let us be little in that All are better when in our midst. Let us be little in self and big in God - and Love. Our Lady of Sorrows, pray for us!

SISTER’S IN CHRIST:
New Book Study for the Fall! Friendship in the Lord is a timeless Catholic spiritual classic that reveals how authentic friendship, when rooted in Christ, becomes a path to holiness, healing, and joy. Reflecting on saintly friendships such as St. Catherine of Siena and Bl. Raymond of Capua, St. Jane Frances de Chantal and St. Francis de Sales, this book invites readers to reclaim the art of seeing, honoring, and loving others as Christ does. In a culture marked by loneliness, Friendship in the Lord is a powerful invitation to rediscover the beauty of spiritual friendship and to become the kind of friend your soul, and the Church needs. This 8-week study begins Sept 22/23 and the cost of the book is $12.00. Contact Caroline Trimble, if you would be interested in joining. RESPECT LIFE CORNER:

US Immigration Reform - The current immigration system is inadequate to address the needs of American families, employers, communities, and immigrants themselves. Reforms and investments are needed to modernize/increase capacity at ports of entry, increase the number of/access to lawful immigration pathways, and establish earned legalization programs for long-time undocumented residents. Suggested reforms are grounded in Catholic teaching, and recognize our country's right to regulate borders, balanced with our duty to uphold the sanctity of human life. VOCATION CORNER:

"I once believed that becoming a priest was a fate worse than death! I always wanted to get married, have a family, and own a golden retriever. My plan was to become a doctor, and I was studying for a degree in science when I had an honest conversation with my childhood pastor. Without coercing me, he affirmed that I would be a great doctor, husband, father – or priest. "The most important thing," he said, "is to seek God's will, because that is where you will find true peace and happiness". Days later, I prayed as I had many times before: "God, I'll do anything you want me to do." But this time I added, "And if you want me to be a priest, I'd love to!" Immediately, I felt afraid, hoping no one had overheard me. Simultaneously, I felt a profound peace from the Holy Spirit. That fall, I decided to join the Companions of the Cross and found that God's plan fit like a glove." Fr. Simon Lobo; Companions of the Cross; Halifax, Nova Scotia, Columbia Magazine June 2022

A Full Day's Wages

Today in the Gospel, Jesus tells a story of several men who were hired to work at a vineyard. The owner of the vineyard went out at different times to find men to work. At the end of the day, he gave each man a whole day's wages, even though some had only worked for a little while!

WOW! HE PAID US A FULL DAY'S WAGE!

THAT'S NOT FAIR - THEY GOT A WHOLE DAY'S PAY!

Jesus tells us that the Kingdom of Heaven is like this too: some people spend their whole lives working for God, and some people only turn to Him at the last minute. God opens Heaven to all the people who choose to love Him.

At first this doesn't seem fair. After all, some people give their whole lives to God and some give hardly any! But here is why it is fair: the only reason that any of us turns to God is because He gave us that grace. Some people have to live their whole lives without God's grace until the very end, but some of us have been given grace all our lives.

I PAID YOU
AS MUCH AS I SAID I WOULD.

Answers: front page - all received the full day's wage.

Saint Thomas of Villanova

September 22

PEOPLE CRITICIZED ST. THOMAS BECAUSE HE WOULD GIVE TO ANYONE WHO ASKED, AND BECAUSE HE WAS GENTLE WITH SINNERS. BUT HE KNEW THAT HE COULD WIN MORE SOULS TO GOD BY BEING GENEROUS AND KIND. WE CAN IMITATE ST. THOMAS' GENEROSITY BY SHARING OUR GOOD THINGS.
